

I enjoy having XM radio. I pay for this service. I see no reason why anyone should be trying to make any changes to this service. People have the right to have any service that XM radio has to offer. I will support anything that XM Radio does to keep all the services that they have and to gain many more.